If evolution is true, an evolutionist should be able to answer six simple questions. This presentation will give participants interesting information to use when talking with others about the creation/evolution issue.

We will also learn what the Bible teaches regarding how — we should discuss controversial issues with both believers and unbelievers.

As a public school teacher, he has been attacked by the ACLU and others for his position in teaching Biology on the Creation/Evolution issue.